

The Delaware Hispanic Commission, in partnership with the Division of Libraries and Small Business Support Organizations, is establishing a Hispanic-American Business Resource Center at several Delaware libraries. We will offer a six part, two hour bilingual series of workshops titled “How to Do Business in Delaware”. If you are an interested in learning the basics of starting a business, visit one of these libraries: Seaford, Georgetown, Dover or Wilmington and register to attend the workshops.

Please access the Hispanic Commission website at www.Hispanic.delaware.gov or visit www.lib.de.us/jobcenter for specific days and times at each location.

Please register in advance
